

Extract from Paul Hamlyn Foundation funding proposal

Objective	Activity	PHF outcomes	Measure of Success	Responsibility
Establish team and collaborative working with partners	Appoint a full-time Our Museum Coordinator, also with input from community partners in the recruitment and appointment process. This 3-year post will focus on establishing the processes needed to align the museum's needs with those of our partners.	Rooted in local needs: museum becomes aware of the range of its community's needs, and develops mechanisms to respond to them.	Our Museum Co-ordinator appointed	Head of St Fagans
	Appoint a full-time dedicated Volunteer Coordinator to work at St Fagans, funded by Amgueddfa Cymru, with input from community partners in the recruitment and appointment process. This post will focus on the internal organisational structures needed to support volunteering.	Capacity building: ensuring the sustainability of the model developed through the PHF initiative Community agency: a shared understanding of targets and strategies between the museum and the volunteer community.	Volunteer Coordinator Appointed	Head of St Fagans

Extract from the St Fagans Application to PHF for Our Museum outlining the collaborative approach to the recruitment of the Our Museum Coordinator and the Volunteer Coordinator.